

The Power of SEWBA Membership

“Every man owes part of his time and money to the business or industry in which he is engaged. No man has a moral right to withhold his support from an organization that is striving to improve conditions within his sphere”.

—Theodore Roosevelt, 26th President of the United States

- ◆ SEWBA is a proactive voice for our industry. We are actively involved with the city and county building departments to promote appropriate regulations that affect home building, home ownership, and your right to do business in the great State of Wyoming.
- ◆ SEWBA is committed to protecting your business by monitoring government on the county, state and national levels. By becoming a member of the SEWBA, you are strengthening the homebuilding industry and boosting your voice in policy making where issues can affect your bottom line.
- ◆ SEWBA believes in strength in numbers. Our membership, in conjunction with the Wyoming Home Builders Association (WHBA) and the National Association of Homebuilders (NAHB) is committed to defending your company's interests and keeping you informed.
- ◆ SEWBA is building a reliable referral network of trustworthy members and associates. Through educational and informational monthly meetings we are confident in our motto of Do Business with a Member. SEWBA members are considered leaders, innovators and among the most professional in the local building industry. Members also enjoy the prestige of belonging to one of the nation's most respected and widely known associations.
- ◆ As a builder, subcontractor, supplier, vendor or professional services firm, your membership creates unsurpassed opportunities, helping you achieve your goals and enhance your bottom line.
